

Apostle Yolanda M. Stith is the Lead Pastor of the All Nations Worship Assembly Baltimore, MD. She is the founder of Charity's Home, Inc., a charitable corporation that serves the needs of homeless children in urban cities. She is also the president of Women, Build! GLOBAL, a women's empowerment movement for leading women.

She has been sent to articulate God's truths and to raise servant leaders in ministry in the 7 spheres of influence. She's a woman of wisdom and through her ministry, God has transformed many lives. Through her creativity and insightful approach, she has gracefully taken a bold step into the media, arts, and entertainment sphere. You will note with Apostle Stith, that worship, prayer, and obedience are KEYS to advancement, of any kind.

She is a graduate of Lancaster Bible College, a student of Capital Seminary, a thriving businesswoman, songwriter, podcaster, and a published author.

On March 23, 2013, Yolanda M. Stith was commissioned into the office of an Apostle and has labored faithfully to fulfill the assignment.

In addition to being a servant to God's people, she is a servant first, to her husband and 4 children.